

END TIME ALERT: ONE

“And when these things begin to come to pass, look up and lift up your heads, for your redemption draws near” Luke 21:28.

Church, and everyone else take heed and do not return into sleep. Watch now! Time is running out.

To a great extent the church community tends to believe that there is still a bank of time as it has been for the past decades or centuries before our Lord Jesus comes to take His church or the end of time.

This belief, perception or mindset of no urgency; this, “as usual” mentality is likely going to see many Christians left behind and surprised when Jesus comes to take His church. This lack of readiness and relaxation appears to be the current situation with most believers around the globe, let alone non-believers yet the time of the end has already begun. I know it sounds crazy.

I wish I could actually shake up everyone to this truth. Of course yes I made this end time script to try and achieve that goal. This is a call to action.

Brethren, ladies and gentlemen, we have lived in the normalcy of time and with less urgency for preparation the return of Jesus Christ for His church or for end time. 2026 is beginning with a call to action. That bank of time we used to have in the years gone by are over and were just making their history leading to fulfillment of a mystery of a lifetime during our time. God is about to declare: “Behold I am doing a new thing.” And if He has been doing it previously even an atheist believes that He is able to do a new thing any time. But 1Thessalonians 5 tells us that we are children of light and therefore that day can not come upon us as a thief. We watch for signs which our Lord Jesus talked about and right now those signs are manifesting.

Jesus talked of signs to watch out for in order to prepare and get ready so that people are not caught unaware. Sadly these happen to be spiritual sayings which are hardly understood fully by one who is not well consecrated in the word of God. Jesus talked about taking note of signs of the end as indicating watchfulness.

My cry right now is to wake someone up and help arouse their spirit to this reality for their awareness, preparation and readiness for the coming of the Lord for His church. However, even if Jesus does not come in your lifetime, readiness for His coming is always critical we all know that everyone’s day of departure/going to the Lord is hidden.

The matter therefore is about readiness for your departure, or His coming for your redemption. My duty right now therefore, is to act as a whistle blower. To help awaken the church and everyone else to watching out for the coming of the Lord. Right now as I am making this script today on 11 February 2026 my heart is burning with this end time message that I pray it should reach as many people as possible within the shortest period of time because there is no more time for jokes and delays, the Lord’s day is just upon us.

I am giving this end time message to raise awareness in people especially the church so that some one might wake up and begin watching.

In order to help better understanding of the message, I have arranged the content in some form of narrative analysis. The whole purpose for this initiative is to try and make a strong voice that leads to awareness for watching, preparation and readiness.

If you would like to help yourself to sink in this truth for better understanding of the this end time and watching alert let us get into the material analysis below together.

Let us first simplify the following:

What is End Time Watching?

End Time Watching involves three stages.

- 1 Awareness Creation
- 2 Preparation
- 3 Readiness

Awareness Creation

Opening your eyes and understanding of times according to the Bible prophecies. What does opening eyes and understanding mean? This means seeing with a spiritual sight what is written in the word. For example when Jesus said there will be wars and rumours of war, spiritual sight is seeing or visualising the current war situation around the world and build similarity and reality basing on the spoken word. Understanding comes when you relate similarities of what was said in the word and the current situation. The result can be some constructed awareness. Such awareness leads to conscious approval or testimony leading to taking necessary action. You strive not to slumber until everything comes to pass because you have faith in the spoken word.

Once awareness to watch is there, one will realise that there are things to be sorted out before the actual day or event. For example a night watchman will have to make sure that there are enough tools for use when thieves come. This can include protective clothing and proper lighting. In other words this is preparedness in the process of watching. This brings us to Mathew 25 about the ten virgins where five had no oil in their lamps. This was part preparation. How were they going to light the lamps without oil. They needed to open their eyes and understanding. This leads to second watching stage which is preparation.

Preparation:

When you are preparing for something you put all your heart to it so that you will never miss a chance. Jesus said it clearly that when these things begin to happen then everyone should lift up their head and look up. So as you prepare you know how and what you are preparing for. In this case of my message of end time we are preparing for the coming of our Lord Jesus to redeem us or end time. Therefore we look for the requirements needed for us not to miss our Lord. The basic requirements are faith, hope and love. We will talk more about these ingredients later and how you can actually have them. This is all part of preparation. In other words preparation should lead to sanctification.

When we are well prepared and we believe we are right then we are ready for the event. This brings us to the last part in the process of watching which I call readiness.

Readiness:

This position is like that one of a bride who has done every step in the preparation for a wedding. She will be clothed in fine linen and beautified with valuable fragrances among other special things. She will be ready and well knows that the bridegroom will be well pleased and excited to take her for the wedding ceremony. Readiness for Jesus Christ is usually confirmed in you by the presence or continuous dwelling of the Holy Spirit in you. Which clearly testifies what we talked about above, faith, hope and love. We will talk more about this later and how you can get to understand it better for your watching..

Here is a small background story

Just a week ago I was talking to a friend of mine Titus about watching for the end times and the return of Jesus Christ. Titus is a man who does not want to miss any church service for a simple reason. When I asked him if he is prepared for the coming of the Lord Jesus he said there was nothing more to prepare since he goes to church regularly and prays. I asked him what Jesus meant in Luke 21:28 when He said “When these things begin to come to pass, then look up and lift up your heads because your redemption draws near.”

I asked him again what Jesus meant in Mathew 25 v 5-8 when He said “5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. 6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. 7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. 8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.”

After days of insightful discussion my friend discovered concrete revelation and testifies that under usual circumstances the church may just be doing routine services many times without many members reaching self denial level or surrendering to Jesus through proper sanctification by the Holy Spirit.

If this is true then it means there must be a cry to awaken the church from slumbering so that they become watchful. Jesus likened the churches to ten virgins showing that literally all ten churches slept. They were awakened by a cry so that they would start to be ready. Unfortunately the other five were not prepared enough, had lambs but no oil so they failed to be ready. The other wise five had just slumbered but were well prepared. They only needed to wake up from sleep and be ready. In other words they needed to just simply wake up and put on their wedding linen and other valuable ornament for beauty.

Now the other five who were foolish had to do a lot of things which they had not done during the preparation phase. In the Bible we are told that they had the lambs but had no oil. This means they had the word and had believed in Jesus but they had not died to self. They were fleshly and lacked proper communion with the Holy Spirit. They are like some current church members who believe that just because they go to church then Jesus will take them. No, in order to be Jesus’ bride that will be clothed with fine linen you need to also have real love of your husband/bridegroom. To love Him as your own and wait hopefully and faithfully as you watch. This power is the oil and comes from the Holy Spirit.

Sometimes the whole thing hangs on how someone started their Christian life so below I feel I must touch on the initial stages of one’s faith, how one got saved.

How did you start your Christian life?

Let me probably go back to where it all starts. Usually a wrong start will also lead to a wrong process and ending. In John 3 Jesus talks clearly to Nikodimus about what makes one go to heaven. Jesus talks of being baptised in water and in spirit. Baptism in spirit means being born again through faith and believing in Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. Understanding what His death on the cross and resurrection means to believers is key. Many Christians were baptised in water but have not understood the spiritual part of it.

On the day of their baptism whilst they were standing in a pool of water many Christians were told that they were being baptised in the name of the Father, name of Jesus and of the Holy Spirit and were drowned in water. In my case it was very true that I did not even know what it all meant spiritually. I did not know that I actually was being re-born into some spiritual truth. In other words I was supposed to begin surrendering my worldly person and live according to this new spiritual truth. I had accepted Jesus in myself so His truth was beginning to grow spiritually in me.

However this process is really not merely automatic. You need to make the new faith and spiritual truth or literally new born “you” grow by feeding him with good food. The good food is prayer, word of God and participating in works that give glory to Jesus and the kingdom of God.

Hence in order to experience fruits or growth you need to be active in the things of God according to the Bible. Preach or share the good news of the word. Pray always. Learn to pronounce the name of Jesus and the Holy Spirit in many situations you face or share with others. Pray for others. Love others and do good to them always. If you always put it to your heart that you want to please God by hating evil and loving righteousness you will realise that the Holy Spirit will enjoy staying in you so that you will often find yourself filled by the Holy Spirit. In such a state one may be considered ready for Jesus’s coming as a bride. It is very possible and easy. Just take the first step of believing in Jesus, repenting and baptism and the Holy Spirit will help you to do the rest.

If you are not born again please take a step and do it now without further delay. There is no reason for staying without being baptised because Jesus said clearly that without being baptised in water and spirit there is no inheritance of heaven.
